Village of Port Henry Dissolution Study Team to Present to Joint Village/Town Boards 7 p.m., Thursday, November 12, 2009

The Village of Port Henry, in cooperation with the Town of Moriah, is conducting a study that can serve as a decision-making tool for Village voters on whether or not to dissolve the Village. The Center for Governmental Research (CGR) of Rochester is the study consultant. On behalf of the Committee, CGR will make a presentation to a joint session of the Village/Town boards and the study team will answer board members' questions.

Where: Knights of Columbus Hall, 4253 Main Street, Port Henry NY
When: Thursday, November 12, 2009
Time: 7 p.m.
What: Overview what currently exists, presentation of options, discuss next steps
Participants: Charles Zettek Jr., CGR Project Director, and other CGR representatives
Committee Members: Village of Port Henry: Mayor Ernest Guerin, Trustee James Hughes, Walt Wojewodzic and Joseph Celotti. Town of Moriah: Supervisor Thomas Scozzafava, Councilman Richard Carpenter, Charlie Bryant and John Boyea.

This presentation is open to the public, but the study team's focus will be on answering questions from board members. A presentation and Q&A session expressly for the public will be held on Thursday, Nov. 19 at 7 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Note: The Committee's first major report, How the Village of Port Henry and the Town of Moriah Currently Provide Municipal Services, will be available on the project website (www.cgr.org/porthenry) on November 2.
